

PROSPECTUS

The Demow College was established on 26th July, 1970 at the initiative of enlightened public and a few distinguished educationists and social activists of the locality. The driving force that did bring these people together was a vision to give an opportunity to students of the region to pursue higher education.

The Mission of the College

The mission of the institution is to produce efficient, socially committed and well-educated graduates. Through dissemination of relevant information and knowledge of rapidly changing world to the student community, it has been targeted to keep the people at grass-roots level in close touch to make them enthusiastic to adapt themselves for their self-upliftment and well-being of the poorest section of the society and to provide the student community an academic environment to build up their academic career.

Demow College was brought under Deficit Grants-in-aid system in the year of 1985 and was provincialised in the year 2005. Currently, the college stands for quality and excellence in higher education.

With a strength of more than nine hundred students and 13 Associate Professors and 12 Assistant Professors, Demow College is one of the premier institutions of higher education of Sivasagar district. For the last 44 years, the college has been offering yeoman's service to the cause of higher education. The healthy academic atmosphere of the college, quality education, good results as well as the personal care and guidance offered by the college attract the students from far and wide and even from remote places.

The college has been accredited by NAAC peer team in 2003. The college fraternity has been striving most to translate the dream of the institution into reality.

Location and Communication

The college is situated at Demow, 300 meters away from the NH 37. It is 22 kilometers away from the district headquarters, Sivasagar and 25 kilometers west of Moran and is well-connected by Assam state Transport Corporation bus services and private carriers.

Accommodation

There is one boys' hostel situated within the college campus and a girls' hostel is to be opened soon.

Environment and Facilities

The college building is quite eye-catching. With buildings situated in two campuses, a well-equipped library, a faculty building and a campus full of shade trees, the college displays an irresistible and appealing look. Demow College can surely boast of a healthy and serene campus environment.

With the active cooperation of the office staff having a sense of belonging to the institution, the teaching community is committed to serve the institution and the student community. students may participate in any one or more schemes of the following co-curricular activities

- i. NSS
- ii. NCC
- iii. Extension Services/Out-reach Programme

Medium of Instruction

Both English and Assamese are permitted as medium of instruction.

Aims and Objectives

- i. To impart higher education to the eligible youths in general within the vicinity.
- ii. To arrange remedial teaching for the upliftment of the student of the weaker section.
- iii. To promote ideas and strengthening of national integration, secularism, inculcation of national and scientific outlook and a cosmopolitan and humanitarian approach towards society and the world community.
- iv. To foster in the minds of the students a sense of belonging to the society and the country of their own.
- v. To imbibe in the minds of the students a feeling of genuine appreciation and fascination for art and culture. The college offers a variety of co-curricular activities aimed at helping the students in order to develop their physical, educational and aesthetic qualities.
